Old Business:

Keith said he now has the Web site updated and if anyone has pictures they want on there to send them to him. Nothing new for the Cemetery except anyone interested in Lawn Care should put an estimate in. Keith talked to Jim Lippitt and he does have insurance to do work on the building if necessary. Letters for road work have been sent out. The Pub's liquor license was approved. Jeff Musburger made the motion to accept the Life Insurance Benefits as they were in the past, seconded by Keith Fulcher motion carried. Keith got a public works grant to fill out and speak to John Damberg again.

New Business: Jeff Musburger will look into the price of purchasing new chairs for the hall. Randee will post the results from the March election if anyone wishes to see them. The Board decided on April 18, 2011 at 9:15 for the Lawn Care Meeting and at 9:30 for the Road Review.

Stan Peterson and Ralph Weeks came to the board with concerns about the Relief Assoc. and the money that they receive; they wanted to know why the town is not giving the Relief Assoc. the $10,000.00 a year they were supposed to get. Debbie Leppala explained that because of today's economy that the town is still giving the Relief Assoc. money, but they are matching the funds instead of the $10,000.00. Greg Millsop also explained to them that the Relief Assoc. and the Fire Dept. are doing really good right now financially.

At that time motion was made by Keith Fulcher and second by Jeff Musburger to adjourn the meeting, motion carried meeting adjourned at 6:50 pm.

Respectfully Submitted

Randee Erjavec, Clerk
Kevin Cavanaugh, Chair
